

Australia Bullion Dealer of the Year: ABC Bullion

#1 ABC Bullion (25.0%)

Runners-up

#2 Bullion Capital (23.4%)

#3 Citadel Bullion (20.9%)

After strong and remarkably close voting, ABC Bullion have taken 1st place in our inaugural Australian vote.

Admittedly our team have never been shy in expressing a love of ABC Refinery's square cast bars – so it's safe to say we feel sister company ABC Bullion are deserving winners of this first year's vote.

Taking exactly a quarter of the Australian public vote, with 790 votes from 3160, ABC Bullion saw Digital Exchange of the Year 2016 winners Bullion Capital take 2nd place by the narrowest of margins – 50 votes

Digital exchange Citadel Bullion came a close third with 569 votes.

ABC Bullion may be part of the giant Pallion group – but despite this they are still somehow able to maintain the feeling of a small friendly bullion dealer and this must in part be responsible for their success.

With a new LBMA listing and an ever-growing array of precious services available across Australia, ABC Bullion look set to maintain and further strengthen their long-established position of real authority in the Australian precious metals market.

Did we mention we're big fans of ABC's square cast bars?
